

CARLINGFORD and OMEATH PARISH

23rd January 2005

TODAY IS THE THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR A

Peter, Andrew, James and John left Their livelihood to follow Jesus. Most Christians are not asked to leave their work to be disciples of Jesus. However, some persons may find their work conflicts with their faith. In such cases radical steps may be exactly what they are called to.

Because teenagers are beginning to consider the directions their lives will take, today's readings challenge them to consider how God may be inviting them to live out their discipleship. Not only ten years from now, but also at school, work and home.
