Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today is Cemetery Sunday in Carlingford, Mass in the Cemetery at 11.30am. Followed by Blessing of Graves.

Thanks to all who helped with preparation of the cemeteries in both Omeath (last Sunday) and Carlingford (today) for our Cemetery Sundays.

Monday is the Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady. It is a holy day of obligation. Mass times as follows:

Mass in Carlingford & Omeath at 10am & 7.30pm

Building Faith in Young People: A message from the Catholic Bishops to mark the 20th World Youth Day..... available this weekend.

Mass-Rock - We were blessed with a lovely evening at the Mass Rock in Ardagh last Wed. Thanks to all who prepared the surrounds, provided hospitality and gathered in prayer.

Omeath Carpark: We have been advised, in the interest of safety, to dedicate one entrance / one exit for traffic to the Church Carpark (Lower) at the Dolmen Centre. We hope that these entrances will be officially marked in the near future.

Congratulations to Paddy & Bridie Fearon on the Golden Jubilee of their wedding. We wish them long life and happiness.

Omeath Active Retirement: Meeting Wednesday 17th at 3pm.

Fr. Carroll & Fr. King thank you for your generosity to August Dues last weekend. Church Gate this weekend: - Irish Wheelchair Association

Pray for all on the Parish List of the dead.

Recently deceased : Maeve Murphy; Philomena Rooney; Kathleen Carr; Patsy Gorman; Patrick McGovern, Cavan & Luton; Margot Foley, Newry.
