Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thank you

“It was a great night and I very much appreciate the warmth and friendship of the people of Carlingford & Omeath,” said Fr. Jim Carroll after his “Farewell Function” last Friday week.

“My heartfelt thanks to parishioners and friends for their kindness and support over the past three years, and for their great generosity and good wishes on my leaving. Thank you one and all.”

Pastoral Letter

The Irish Bishops are publishing a Pastoral Letter entitled ‘Cherishing the Evening of Life’ to co-incide with ‘Day for Life 2005’ which takes place today. It deals with the sanctity of life and especially the value of older people and their contribution to families, local communities and the Church.
