

Parish Bulletin CARLINGFORD / OMEATH

16th October 2005 - Twenty-Ninth Sunday

Today's Gospel gives us the well-known statement of Jesus - "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." The bible teaches that everything on earth and in the heavens belongs to God, that we depend on him for our very existence, and that it is right that we should worship him. We are not to worship kings, emperors or presidents, however powerful they may be. We are to worship God alone. Of course, we are to respect lawful authorities in Church and State. We are to pay our taxes and obey just laws, but God deserves the first place in our lives.
