

26th June 2005

Today is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Q. Why do we have to ask God to lead us not into temptation? Surely God would never lead us into temptation or sin.

A. That's correct. God would never lead us towards sin. Since God respects our freedom, temptation is permitted to happen. In the Lord's Prayer we ask God to lead us in the use of our freedom to do what we ought, thereby delivering us from the evil spirit. It is a petition for the grace to discern the misleading tactics of the devil and for the strength to persevere in God's way. Temptation can be an occasion of spiritual victory when we cooperate with God's grace.
