Collection for Victims of Pakistan Earthquake

As previously notified, the collection last November in this diocese, for the victims of the Pakistan Earthquake, which raised €114,570, was passed to the Columban Fathers in Navan, who have a mission in Pakistan. The monies received by them have been used to fund a housing project for those left homeless after the earthquake in an area called Bat Sangra, where hopefully one hundred and ninety-six houses will be built. The contribution from the people of the diocese will pay for almost half of the overall cost of this project. I thank the people of the diocese one again for your generosity.

- Archbishop Sean Brady.
