Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land

Cardinal Daoud, Prefect of the Congregation for Oriental Churches has written to express his thanks for the remittance to the Congregation from this diocese of £8,407 and €1,517, proceeds from the traditional Good Friday parish collection for the Holy Land.

The funds will be used for the educational, catechetical and social needs of children, the elderly, the sick, the disabled and the unemployed of the various Catholic Churches of the Holy Land. The Cardinal is grateful for this 'concrete sign of fraternal solidarity'.

Cemetery Sunday : Omeath on 6th August at 11.00 a.m.
Carlingford 13th August at 11.30 a.m.
Pouillawee Mass Rock – Wednesday 9th August at 7.00 p.m.

This week's feasts : Thursday 20th – St. Appolinaris, a second-century Italian saint and martyr.

Friday 21st – St. Lawrence of Brindisi, a Capuchin friar renowned for his preaching during the Counter-Reformation.

Saturday 22nd – St. Mary Magdalene, She was one of the disciples of Jesus, who stood beneath the Cross and was the first to announce the Resurrection.

Young Church – Children's corner :- Jesus sends out his disciples to spread his message, and to share all the good news of God' love. He tells them how to go about it – simply and joyfully, and to trust in God for their needs. This is also Jesus' message to us today.

Question : Do you trust in God?

Study Theology from Home

The Priory Institute, Tallaght, offers a study programme in theology by distance learning using the method made famous by the Open University. The programme comes in fifteen-week modules and is based on specially designed text-books to be studied at home. Participants from all over Ireland are supported by a network of study-centres and by internet support if accessible. The Programme can be done either for academic credit or simply for its own sake, without the pressure of written assignments. The deadline for applications for the Autumn is September 20th. For further information, contact: The Priory Institute, Tallaght Village, Dublin 24. Telephone 01-4048127 or 01-4049124 or email: enquiries@prioryinstitute.com or website: www.prioryinstitute.com
