Armagh Diocesan Pastoral Plan 2005 - 2007

For some time now, the bishops priests and people of our diocese have been involved in a process of discussion, consultation, reflection and prayer with a view to developing a pastoral plan which will meet the needs of our changing times. Nine working groups have been set up to further this work. A leaflet has been published containing a brief report from each of these groups and setting out what has been achieved so far. There is a copy available this weekend for each household.
