We are happy to inform you that Fr. Eugene Kirk is safe and well in Lima, Peru. However the recent Earthquake in Lima has caused over 500 deaths, thousands have been injured and large areas reduced to rubble. To assist Fr. Eugene Kirk and his people we are having a special collection on Saturday & Sunday 15th, 16th September in St. Michael's Church, Carlingford and Sunday 16th in St. Laurence's Church, Omeath. Your generous support would be most appreciated.

Permanent Deacons

The Irish Bishops have decided "in the light of the pastoral needs of the Church in Ireland" to restore the ministry of permanent deacon. Permanent deacons are so called to distinguish them from those who become deacons as one of the final stages of preparation for priesthood.

Copies of a leaflet entitled "Among you as one who serves: The Permanent Diaconate in Ireland", prepared by the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, are available in both churches.

Alcoholics Anonymous

What is AA? Alcoholics Anonymous is a voluntary, worldwide fellowship of men and women from all walks of life who meet together to attain and maintain sobriety. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for AA membership.

How AA Members maintain sobriety. AA is a programme of total abstinence. Members simply stay away from one drink, one day at a time. Sobriety is maintained through sharing experience, strength, and hope at group meetings and through the suggested Twelve Steps for recovery from alcoholism.
