St. Brigid's Shrine, Faughart: 75th Annual National Pilgrimage Sat 5th & Sun 6th July

The first Annual National Pilgrimage, led by Cardinal MacRory and attended by the then Taoiseach and Government Ministers, was held on Sunday 1st July, 1934 and has been held in early July every year since. This year there will be special celebrations to mark the 75th Pilgrimage.

His Eminence Cardinal Sean Brady, DCL, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland, will perform the opening ceremonies and officiate at Mass on Saturday 5th July at 7.30pm. A general blessing with the Relic of St. Brigid will be imparted to pilgrims.

On Sunday 6th July the traditional Pilgrimage Procession along the banks of St. Brigid's Stream will commence at 3.00pm, followed by Mass during which there will be Blessing of the Sick. There will be individual blessings with the Relic of St. Brigid after Mass.

Festival Day of Saint Oliver 2008 The Festival Day of St Oliver Plunkett will be celebrated in St. Peter's Church, Drogheda, on next Sunday 6th July. This year there will be an added dimension to the occasion as the concelebrated Mass will commemorate the death of Fr Declan Collins SDB, a native of Termonfeckin, who was murdered at the All Saints Parish Centre in Ennerdale, South Africa, in November 2002. The Mass will honour St Oliver Plunkett, and will also acknowledge those who, like Fr Declan, continue to serve the Gospel even to the point of death. The Festival Mass in St Peter's Church will be attended by the Papal Nuncio Archbishop Guiseppe Leanza as well as members of the Salesian Order and priests of our own Diocese led by Cardinal Sean Brady, Archbishop of Armagh. All are welcome to attend. The Relics of St Oliver Plunkett will leave Our Lady of Lourdes Church at 3pm in procession to arrive for Mass in St Peter's Church at 4pm.
