Peninsula Pastoral Area

Pastoral Area Resource Team Meeting Mon 17th Jan 8.30pm in Rathabbey Community House.

Mass Attendance Survey covering all the churches in the Pastoral Area will be conducted over the weekends 23rd & 30th January and 6th & 13th February.

Do This in Memory The programme of preparation for First Holy Communion, involving the children of Second Class in St. Oliver's School with their parents and the parish community, continues on next Sunday 23rd January at 11.30am Mass in St. Michael's Church, Carlingford.

Swine Flu Protocol The Archdiocese of Armagh recommends the following:

- Those who have the flu or flu symptoms are requested not to attend Mass.
- The handshake is to be discontinued as a means of offering the sign of peace.
- It is recommended that receiving communion on the tongue be replaced by reception on the hand.

The Mystery and Gift of the Eucharist

On Thursday 27th Jan 8.00-10.00pm in Ballymascanlon House Hotel the Diocesan Liturgy Group has organised an evening focused on the Eucharist.

It will be presented by Colette Furlong who teaches Sacred Liturgy in All Hallows College, Dublin.

Colette has been appointed the Pastoral Development Officer for the Eucharistic Congress, June 2012.

The theme for the Eucharistic Congress will be: 'The Eucharist: Communion with Christ and with one another'. As part of our diocesan preparations for the Congress, the evening will focus on the mystery of the Eucharist itself and on the great gift it is.

Whilst the evening will be of interest to everyone, it will be of particular interest to members of Parish Pastoral Councils, members of Parish Liturgy Groups, Ministers of Word and Eucharist and anyone who is actively involved in parish life or in the life of the Church. A lot of practical ideas and suggestions will be offered as to how we might move forward in our parishes to develop people's understanding and appreciation of Eucharist.
